Monthly news & updates April 2019

Dear Friends

We invite you to open up a new chapter in your lives with our first Friends newsletter! Join us at one of our community events at the Millburn Free Public Library. We have many different programs both in the daytime and the evening to enhance, enlighten and help you enjoy and increase your relationship with the library. Come add your presence and ideas and build new relationships.

Our next Fireside Book Club will meet on Monday, May 6 at 2 pm to discuss Amor Towles's epic novel, A Gentleman in Moscow. The next evening, Tuesday, May 7, we have our Spring Museum Night at 7 pm in the auditorium, with museum educator Vivian Gordon as our guest speaker. Book donations for the Friends annual book sale will begin on May 1 and last until June 2. Our 16th annual book sale takes place Saturday and Sunday, June 15 and 16. Friends members are invited to a special Preview Sale on Thursday, June 13 from 6:30-8:30.

The Friends of the Millburn Library events are free and open to Millburn residents and non-residents alike, so tell your friends and invite them to join us.  A Gentleman in Moscow
by Amor Towles

From the New York Times bestselling author - a transporting novel about a man who is ordered to spend the rest of his life inside a luxury hotel. When, in 1922, Rostov, an indomitable man of erudition and wit, must now live in an attic room while some of the most tumultuous decades in Russian history are unfolding outside the hotel's doors. Unexpectedly, his reduced circumstances provide him a doorway into a much larger world of emotional discovery

In our own allegedly classless society, we seem to have retained only what's deplorable about aristocracy — the oppression, the snobbery, the racism — and thrown out those qualities that were worth retaining. Which makes "The Gentleman of Moscow" an endearing reminder of the graciousness of real class. It has nothing to do with money; it's predicated on the kind of moral discipline that never goes out of style.
Ron Charles is the editor of Book World.
